REFLECTION

Dear parishioners, Friends and Visitors , welcome to St Mary on the Quay. This Sunday the Church celebrates Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Many of the most tender moments of Christ's life recorded in the gospels take place by the lake in Galilee. Today's account is reminiscent of the scene after the Resurrection when Peter suggests, after all the turmoil and the uncertainty about what would happen next: 'Let's go fishing'. So much had happened and it all began here. Peter and his companions had had a fruitless night fishing and were cleaning the nets when Jesus asked them to put out to sea again so he could preach to the people more effectively. This completed, he asked Peter to put out the nets again. It must have been the last thing Peter wanted to do. But he trusted what Jesus had asked and the results were unimaginable. Peter responded in awe to this act of Christ. When invited to follow Jesus into this new way of living and new mission and purpose, he left the fish and followed. May we too accept Jesus' gentle invitations.
